

BOLOGNA PRIZE FOR THE BEST CHILDREN'S PUBLISHER OF THE YEAR THE 2016 WINNERS

Quality and creativity in international publishing recognised at BolognaFiere

Established by the Children's Book Fair together with the Italian Publishers' Association (AIE), the BOP Bologna Prize for the Best Children's Publisher of the Year acknowledges publishers from six continents that have distinguished themselves for their creativity and the quality of their editorial selections over the last year. The six winners received the awards in the Sala dello Stabat Mater at the Archiginnasio Library in Bologna yesterday evening on Monday 4th April: this prestigious award is one of the high points of the opening day of the Bologna Children's Book Fair, which this year celebrates its 53rd edition.

AFRICA

African stories, cultural roots and traditions: the Republic of South Africa is rich in books, authors and illustrators, this year's winner is Bumble Books of Publishing Print Matters. The publisher boasts illustrators of international recognition such as Piet Grobler, together with other new talents, ready for the international market. African Culture, folk stories and tales of daily life are all set to travel the world.

OCEANIA

In New Zealand the relationship with European culture is very well established. The catalogue of the winning publisher Book Island boasts many quality titles that are also present in the catalogues of other publishers around the world: a child from New Zealand meeting an Italian child may well discover that they both share a love for the illustrated books of Marianne Dubuc. The catalogue is also rich in Dutch titles, thanks to a joint venture between Holland and New Zealand.
