The Extraordinary Library 5 The Power of Imagination

100 libri illustrati selezionati da Bologna Children's Book Fair per Pitti

Immagine Bimbo 2020.

Drappi magici e simbolici, dichiarazioni di appartenenza, bandiere che dicono di comunità che travalicano i confini, che difendono diritti, raccontano e inventano mondi fantastici. Bandiere colorate, cucite, indossate, vessilli esibiti, insegne o tappeti magici, bandiere per la pace, bandiere di pirati, ma anche azioni e pensieri che si fanno bandiera, che portano istanze dirompenti e sanciscono nuove identità aprendo nuovi orizzonti in nuove storie.

Non solo libri di bandiere geografiche e politiche, tanto amate dai bambini, enciclopedici e appassionati classificatori, ma anche un viaggio bibliografico che include libri-bandiera, libri che diventano il simbolo del diritto alla lettura, alla pace, all'inclusione, alla diversità, al rispetto per l'ambiente, icone letterarie che ci parlano da sempre e per sempre di autodeterminazione e del potere dell'immaginazione.

Il progetto The Extraordinary Library prosegue per nutrire e sostenere scambi proficui e inventivi fra il mondo dell'editoria per l'infanzia internazionale e quello del childrenswear: mondi accumulati da una evoluzione continua che veste, racconta, popola, rende visibile e contribuisce ad arricchire ogni giorno il mondo infantile e la sua più brillante espressione.

100 excellent international picture books selected by Bologna Children's Book

Fair for Pitti Immagine Bimbo 2020.

Magical, symbolic drapes, belonging declarations, flags that speak of communities reaching beyond their borders, flags that defend rights, narrate and invent splendid worlds. Coloured flags – sewn together, worn, held on high, standards or magic carpets – flags proclaiming peace, pirate flags and flags announcing action and thought, flags devoted to urgent issues and new identities, opening up new horizons with new stories. This exhibition is not just about geographical and political world's flags, a subject much loved by children, encyclopaedias and classifiers. It is a journey through books that can be seen as symbols of children's right to books, peace, inclusion, diversity, and environmental safeguard – characters that have become icons for all times of the right to self-determination and imagination. The Extraordinary Library project goes on to encourage and support meaningful exchange between children's publishing and childrenswear: two realms under continuous development that both narrate and empower the world of the child.
