

58TH BOLOGNA CHILDREN'S BOOK FAIR 14 - 17 June 2021 - online

BOLOGNA PRIZE FOR THE BEST CHILDREN'S PUBLISHERS OF THE YEAR 2021 WINNERS

Creativity, inclusiveness and high-quality choices rewarded

Founded by the Bologna Children's Book Fair, in partnership with the AIE – Associazione Italiana Editori, and the IPA – the International Publishers Association, the BOP – Bologna Prize for the Best Children's Publishers of the Year acknowledges the publishers in six parts of the world that, over the past year, have most richly distinguished themselves with the creativity, courage and quality of their publishing.

The winners of the ninth edition of the award were unveiled today at 2 p.m. on Monday 14 June over the Fair's online platform. The six winners, chosen by the Fair's publishers and international institutions for the promotion of books and reading, were announced by Elena Pasoli, Exhibition Manager, Bologna Children's Book Fair; Ricardo Franco Levi, President of the AIE – Italian Publishers Association; and Bodour Al Qasimi, President of the IPA – International Publishers Association.

AFRICA

For Africa, the winner is Mkuki na Nyota, Tanzania, a publishing house founded in 1981 whose work not only encourages and promotes reading, but cultivates indigenous literature as a way of safeguarding and sharing Tanzanian culture around the world.

NORTH AMERICA

For North America, Levine Querido, USA, lays claim to the top of the podium. The publishing house focuses on works by authors and creators from under-represented backgrounds, notably people of color, members of the LGBTQ community, Latinx creators, indigenous artists and writers, creators with disabilities, members of minority religions, and more.
